CENTON-17 The silly creature who is afflicted with a diar rhoes of words and discharges them over the above signature is, we see, "out" again in Monday's Journal. His folly is greater than even Prentice can stand god-father to. His Abolitionism is so rampant that even the wily editor of the Journal, who has been hugging the musky thick-lipped wench Abelition to his bosom from his beyhood up, and who has recently followed the ungainly harlot to her own house, and whose eyes are constantly turned lustfully toward her, even he has withdrawn his endorsement from "Union," and leaves him to perish like an un. wholesame toad-stool by the light of a single day But the editer of the Journal cannot escape a this stage of the game, from the effect of his endorsement and adoption of the sentiments of this prodigal of folly, the writer of 'Valon," by say-

The endorsement of the Journal's editor bas aircady gone forth to the world. The sentiments of the "No. 3" article are kis: the argument is his: and if any of our readers will take the trouble to look at an article in the Journal, published rome weeks since, they will find nearly the same language used by the editor of the Journal himself in an abolition article about the "Destruction of Lawrence." In that article the editor of the Journal adopts the "memorial" of the Lawrence traitors as the truth, espouses their cause, and belies, befouls and blackguards the Administration the Democratic members of Congress, and the Democratic party, to his Abolition heart's content, and now be says he "does not approve all the opinions expressed by the writer of these ar-If there is any part excepted ont of his approval, we have no guarantee that it is the Abolition part, but every reason to suppose that in of "Union" has given a fatthful daguerreotype of the negro-loving heart of the editor of the Journal.

The Journal says the writer of "Union" is an "Old Line Jeffersonian Democrat." We have imitate. They do not even apologize for it on the the ground that it is recognized in the Constituevery reason to believe this assertion atrociously false. The man who could pen such articles has no more idea of what Jeffersonian Democracy is, than he has conception of what the duties of a citi zen of a Southern slaveholding State are.

The writer of "Union" has a villainous mem ory or is else reckless of the judgment he prounces upon himself. In bis "No. 3" effort he and does battle for 'bleeding Kansss' and freeniggerism with as genuine 'shrieks' as ever Freeley or Lane uttered. In "No. 4" he sets in unclean bird that befouls its own nest, takes an Here is the sentence "Union" prononnces upon

A man is excusable for not aiding his neigh hor in an unjust quarrel, but not for taking acthe part against her. Such a man is not apt to be what Western people call whole-hearted. They suspect him of more ambition than patriotism.

We "suspect" "Union," is not whole-hearted, and we question whether he will think bimself more than half-witted when he sees the unpatriotic position in which he has placed himself. We append the following abolition argument from "Union's" No. 3." It is identically the argument used by the Lawrence traitors in their memorial: 'it is the argument at Prentice made, some weeks since. It is the argument of Howard and Sherman in their infamous "majority" report. It is the embodiment of the "shrieks" of the whole abolition pack of the North; it is the "active part" "Union" has taken against his own State and section, (admitting Kentucky and the South were wrong, which we do not,) for the doing of which he has become his own accuser. Here is the "active part," for "No. 3:" "There came to his (the Marshal's) aid some fifty armed hissourians and four hundred men who had been gathered and sent from South Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama, at the expense of citizens of those States, for the purpose of pre-venting Kausas from becoming a free State. that there was not and never had been any in-tention to resist legsl process, the marshal was induced to go into the town with only a few of THE FAIRS.—The following is a list of the prin-non the assurance of a committee of citizens his followers, and after doing what he wanted be returned to his posse, dismissed them from his service and turned them over to a sheriff. This cheriff marched the whole of the armed posse into the town, and assuming to himself the fun tions of both petty jury and judge, pronounced verdict and judgment under the indictment, and proceeded to abate the alleged nuisances. Though the hotel was fitted up with a lurge amount valuable furniture belonging to persons who ha leased it, he proceeded to hurn down the hote with its valuable contents and to destroy the two printing presses. Whilst a part of these 'law and order' men were thus executing thes lawless orders of the shoriff, the balance dispers ed themselves over the town robbing and steal ingeverything they could lay their hands on. The posse was then dismissed, and breaking into small armed bands they traversed the country burning and plundering houses, killing cattle, and stealing horses. It is believed that there is but little if any exaggeration in this rep esenta-tion of the conduct of the pro-slavery party in Kansas. It seems to come from reliable sources, and the most of it abundantly proved before the Congressional committee. But be toat as it may, this is what the Northern people armly believe as to the treatment of their countrymen in Kansas. In addition some score of respectable citizens have been indicted for and are suffering close imprisonment under the guard of U.S. troops upon a charge of treason. The only charge against most or at least some of them s, that they were members of a convention which formed a constitution to be presented to Congress with the petition of the people to admit the territory as a State. In thus acting without a law anthorizing the convention, they did but follow the example of the people of several territories which have been admitted into the Buchananand his Haters, Something more than thirty-five years ago Mr. Buchanan was elected to Congress. From that time until now he has been a public mun, and as such has been always in full view of the people. All his actions and all his votes are before us; they have been for years and years subjected Since his nomination for the Presidency malice and despair have exhausted themselves in the study, and all the result is a cry in the North that he is wholly devoted to the interests of the doctrine of Squatter Sovereignty.

Now Mr. Buchanan has always contended that when the people of a Territory met in lawful assembly to form a Constitution, they had the right to determine whether slavery should or should not exist in the State about to be formed; and when, by his letter of acceptance, he endorsed the Cincinnati platform, and the right of the people of a Territory to determine the existence of slavery among them, he doubtless knew perfectly well that his words would never be misconstrued be made the present month-Bank Directors by his friends, while his enemies would be ready to misconstrue anything he could possibly say. In order to fix his position more vividly before our readers, we give an extract from a letter written from Philadelphia, on the 6th instant, by a gentleman from Alabama, immediately after returning from a conversation with Mr. Buchanan at Wheatland:

"He ridiculed the doctrine of Squatter Sovereignly, and said that the North had now, for the first time in the history of the country obtained from the Government the concession of the true principle, viz: That the people of a Territory had the right, when they come to form a State Constitution to say whether they would or would not have slavery That by its legislation, Congress had admitted that the power was with the people and not in Congress, and the only sensible rule was that this power could be exercised by the people only when they come to form a State Government preparatory to admission into the Union. I give you almost his very words. He said, if he could be elected, he felt satisfied the slavery question would be finally settled, provided be could carry a portion of the New England States or the State of New York. In other words, if he were elected by a national vote, what he would do in the premises would have a national support, and the strength of Free Soilism, which is sectional, would be dispersed. The truth is, Mr. Buchanen is as sound on this question as was Mr. Calhoun, and the Northern mocracy are better Southern men to-day than many Democrats even at the South. Whatever they may have done beretofore, now they meet the question boldly, and defend the institution of with a fearlesness that we might do well to tion, but they say it is right."

"Every mother should have a box in th house handy in case of accidents to the children Reading's Russia Salve.

It is a Boston remedy of thirty years' standing, and is recommended by physicians. It is of this city, on Thursday last, presented Captain Richard Robinson, of Newport, with a magnificent buggy and harness, complete, valued at S275. There is no one more universally esteemed among our river men than Capt. Dick Robinson, and we are glad to know that his individual friends know how to appreciate the true worth of the man.

The regular monthly realing of the Mechanics Institute will be held this evening. The Robertson is one of the firm of McDowell and Cure, which can be testified to by thousands. who have used it in the city of Boston and vicinity for the last thirty years. In no instance will this Salve do any injury, or interfere with a physician's prescription. It is made from the ourest materials, from a recipe brought from Russia—of articles growing in that country—and the proprietors have letters from all classes, clergymen, physicians, sea captains, nurses, and others who have used it themselves and recommend it to others. Redding's Russia Salve is put in large tin boxes, stamped on the cover with a picture of a horse and a disabled soldier, which picture is also engraved on the wrapper.

Failpitation of the thest,

Pain in the pit of the stomach, or towards the right side, Sallowness of complexion, Depression of spirits and stritability of temper, &c. If a case of dyspepsia should be neglected, most serious effects may ensue, tor it lays the foundation for, is the incipient cause of, and very irequently terminates in consumption. I would impress upon the mind that to triffe with this disease, may be to sport with that reason which constitutes man super-eminent among animal beings, or to emblitter existence by adding a consciouances of folly to the penalty of pain.

This medicine is prepared entirely from vegetable substances; the most delicate stomach can bear it conveniently, and it is given with perfect safety, in minute does to the most tender infants, its properties being of attengthening and trivgorating nature. It is nearly put up m bottles, with sample directions for use.

The following testimonials from some well anown and respectable citizens of Philadelphia, are fully corroborative of the tried efficacy of the Anti Dyspeptic Elizir.

Attetaation. We, having used William's Antl-Dyspectic Elixir will the most perfect satisfaction and success, take great ples are in recommending it to all persons suffering with Dys-peptis, as we are fully convinced of its most estimately qualities in restoring the digestive powers, tensowing a pain and uncasiness, and unparting a healthy tone to the stomach. Testimony of Mr. Michael Dunn, Superintendent of the Philadelphia Exchange, corroborative of the efficacy of Williams's Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir.

Poctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been uable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afficieted with its symptome, than within the last tew weeks. Indige silon, increase that we weeks. Indige silon, increase pains in the left side, rendering mc, for the time being, truly wretched. Fortunately, I was recommended by a friend to try your Eixir. I did so, and in tess than two weeks, indige silon ceased; pain and nervous depression left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost mi raculous, and my object in writing to you is—a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient remedy.

Dailty's finhaling Vaper is used in the cure of diseases of the Lungs. Worn on the broat, the heat of the body causes an eraporation, which will be constantly intelled by the patient, passing gently into all the air cells and passages of the lungs, and supplying every part with a southing and healing vapor, while the patient is laking Daily's Extract of Ginsing or Honey Syrup, for the cough and debility, and his Balsam of Wahoo, for the triputre state of the blood. It is acknowledged by all that by inbuling marsh miasma, or noxious vapors or air, the lungs become diseased. Is it not equally frue that, supplying the lungs with an invigorating and heating medicine, will restore them to heatild.
